

RECORDED COMPLAINTS/CONDUCT MATTERS RELATING TO THE CHIEF CONSTABLE, 2014

Conduct/Complaint	Status	Remarks	Outcome
Allegation of failure to refer the complainant's complaints to the IPCC or upheld the victim's code. (Against Chief Constable Gilmore).			Sub-judice, complaint not progressed.
Allegation of failure to make all frontline officers aware of the ACPO guidance relating to members of the public photographing in public places. (Against Ex-Chief Constable Bettison and Chief Constable Gilmore).	Not upheld	Appeal to IOPC not upheld.	No further action.
Allegation of deliberate dishonesty during the appointment process for Chief Constable of Merseyside Police in 1998. (Against Chief Constable Bettison).		Recordable conduct matter arising from IPCC inquiry into the Hillsborough disaster	Investigation by the IOPC
Allegation of improper dealings with individuals who are subject to a criminal investigation involving allegations of bribery and corruption. (Against Chief Constable Gilmore).		IOPC returned to the PCC.	Subject to investigation by Lancashire Constabulary
Allegation of failing to tell the truth when claiming that the complaint has been recorded under the prior complaints legislation. (Against Chief Constable Bettison).	Police Reform Act disapplied. Reg 5, Police (Complaints and Misconduct Regs) 2012	Appeal to IOPC not upheld.	No further action.
Allegation of incorrectly appointing an officer to investigate a complaint and failure to keep the complainant updated or preserve evidence. (Against T/CC John Parkinson). Allegation of failure to provide updates to the complainant and respond to correspondence sent to him. (Against Chief Constable Gilmore).	Locally resolved under Sch 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002	Appeal to IOPC not upheld.	No further action.
Allegations relating to misconduct in breach of the standards of professional behaviour made via WYP whistleblowing system. (Against Chief Constable Gilmore).		IPCC returned to the PCC.	Investigated by Lancashire Constabulary.
Allegation of failure to formally record a public complaint, failure to record a crime and failure to investigate any of the associated matters involved. (Against Chief Constable Gilmore).	Police Reform Act disapplied. Reg 5, Police (Complaints and Misconduct Regs) 2012		No further action.