

Young Person's Advisory Group

Mark Burns-Williamson, West Yorkshire's Police and Crime Commissioner wants you to join his Youth Advisory Group which:

- Gives young people a say about how the police do their job.
- Provides an opportunity to take part in a new group working with the Police and Crime Commissioner.
- Will help you understand more about the police.

What are group members expected to do?

- Give their time, energy and commitment
- Share their thoughts and experience.
- Help the PCC improve policing and make sure people feel safer

Do group members need any special skills?

No, we will provide you with training.

Do group members get paid?

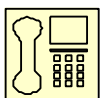

No, this is voluntary work but you will receive travel expenses

Anyone between 13 – 21 can join! All you have to do is register your interest by completing a short form.
